THE TURF.

turd. The King of Italy was present.

Mr. E. Hulton won his first two-year-old race of the season when Pennant defeated a log field of most backward (wo-year-olds in the Granby Plate at Newmarket on April 16. In workmanlike fashion did the son of Earla Mor leave the gate, and being well trained to me business, the gelding kept doggedly at it to win eleverly. R. T. Woosten trains for Mr. Hulton. His Majesty the King evidently owns a smart cold in Sunny Lake, who followed up the success he gained at Newbury recently by another at Newmarket, just before the mail left England, when he swerved.

THE MAIN ROAD QUESTION.

The Editor.

To the Editor.

Sir—I have read with much interest several letters in your columns on the above question, and have also read evidence given before the Main Roads Commission, but to my mind not one suggestion has been thrown out as to the best and most economic way to keep our roads in good repair, and to you are to the first deposit had been paid the new owners of the property received word mile way to keep our roads in good repair, and the property is a property of the property received word mile way to keep our roads in good repair, and the property is a least of the property received word mile way to keep our roads in good repair, and the property is a least of the property received word mile way to keep our roads in good repair, and the property received word mile way to keep our roads in good repair, and the property received word in the property of the property received word in the property received

MOUNT GAMBIER.

A meeting of members of the Mount Gambier branch was held on May 9 in the secretary's office, when the president (Mr. H. L. Kennedy) presided over a large attendance. The secretary was instructed to forward letters of sympathy to Mra. Thomas Edwards and Mr. J. Botterill. It was decided to forward 24 for shares in the Liberal Club. The secretary was instructed to obtain two dozen Federal rolls, so the sub-branch secretaries could have them checked. It was decided to urge the executive council to take a plebiacite to select Senate candidates; isaling toat to have them selected at an early date. It was resolved that the district committee to select candidates for the next Legislative Council and House of Assembly elections, after the coming session is finished, and last the candidates be requested to page a certain amount towards their election expenses. Messrs. H. L. Kennedy, J. Botterill, E. P. G. Lattle, and James Pick were appointed delegates to the annual district committee meeting, to be held at Narracourte.
